EPHCC Seizes the Three-peat at the 36th annual TAMACC Convention

The El Paso Hispanic Chambers of Commerce seized the Three-peat for the Texas Large Chamber of the Year at the 36th annual Texas Association of Mexican American Chamber of Commerce Convention (TAMACC) on Friday, August 26, 2010 in Irving, Texas.

The Texas Large Chamber of the Year Award is the most prestigious award granted by the largest Hispanic Business Organization in the state of Texas, once again proving that your El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce is the best in the state of Texas.

Each year TAMACC presents the most prestigious awards in the Lone Star State to extraordinary and visionary Hispanic chambers, businessmen and women, as well as corporate and government advocates, who have contributed to and demonstrated exemplary excellence and leadership in business. Through these prestigious awards, TAMACC honors leadership and the business success of Latinos in the State of Texas.

“The El Paso Hispanic Chamber is constantly striving to enhance and increase the product lines and services it provides to El Paso’s growing business community. From offering a wide variety of new business trainings to being named as one of only four nationwide third party certifiers for the New Federal Women-Owned Small Business Set-Aside Program, the El Paso Hispanic Chamber remains customer driven and customer focused”, said Alexandra Swann, 2011 EPHCC Board Chairwoman.

The 2011 Texas Large Chamber of the Year award adds to the many recognitions received by the El Paso Hispanic Chamber including the 2009 and 2010 TAMACC Texas Large Chamber of the Year and the 2008 and 2010 Large Hispanic Chamber of Commerce for the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (USHCC), as well as recognition for CEO, Cindy Ramos-Davidson as the 2008, 2009 and 2010 USHCC CEO of the Year.

“The successes of our Hispanic Chamber is attributed largely in part to the members we serve, our diligent and caring board of directors and of course our Hispanic Chamber staff. We are incredibly humbled and honored to be recognized by TAMACC with such a prestigious award, and will continue to work towards enriching the services we provide to help build a stronger business economy for our community”, said Cindy Ramos-Davidson, CEO-El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce .

TAMACC is a private non-profit corporation founded 35 years ago by a small group of Hispanic business persons interested in increasing business opportunities for themselves and other similar business owners. The association, with headquarters in Austin, Texas, acts as the organizational umbrella providing advocacy, technical support, programs, and services to the network of 23 Hispanic Chambers of Commerce across the State of Texas.

About the El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce: The El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce serves as a vital resource connection for over 1,200 small minority, women and disadvantaged business members in our community. For the past 21 years, it has served as the primary catalyst to bring regional coordination and synergy to local minority business development. Our role is to facilitate the “growth” or expansion of their business, as many are on the cusp of reaching full growth potential, and the programs and services we offer are reflective of that commitment. The mission of the El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce is to promote the interest of the businesses we serve, to improve the economic and educational environment, to foster representation on major issues of public policy that impact Hispanics, minorities, and other small and minority owned business entities, and to promote the awareness and preservation of the heritage and cultural diversity shared in our region.
